◆ Frontiers of Knowledge, Wisdom, and Research

The National Commission for Reviewing Publications, which oversees the performance of scientific journals, assigning and revoking their academic status, has formulated regulations that determine the academic credibility of scientific journals through the Ministry of Science. Imam Reza International University, Razavi University of Islamic Sciences, AQR's Libraries, Museums, and Documents Organization, the Artistic Creations Institute, and the Islamic Research Foundation all regularly publish several scientific, specialized, and research journals.

◆ Infrastructure Development with Technological Achievements

In recent years, the merger of Razavi Concrete and Machinery Company, Razavi Mines Company, and Razavi Urban Development and Construction Institute into Razavi Industries, Mines, and Urban Development Company was completed to reduce redundancy and competition with the private sector, paving the way for increased efficiency and focus on innovation in the construction industry. This company has conducted 24 research projects in construction industry, significantly improving production processes and reducing environmental impacts.
